

PRESS ACCREDITATION REQUEST FORM

› Media Accreditation Summary ‹

Accreditation Requirements

- Accredited members of the media will have their registration fees waived. Accommodation and travel are not included.
- Accreditation is at the discretion of the Press Office.
- Media Accreditations will be issued on a first-come, first-served basis. There are a limited number of press accreditations for each media organization because of limited space.
- Please submit your request for accreditation to the Press Office by February 28, 2008
- The deadline for press accreditation is March 15, 2008. We will not process requests for accreditation after that date.
- We will not grant press accreditation on the spot.
- You will receive information from the World Summit On Innovation & Entrepreneurship once accreditation has been granted.
- Accredited media will be provided access to photo calls, press conferences, the media center, and sessions/lunches/dinners open to reporting press, radio & television.
- As part of accreditation, the World Summit On Innovation & Entrepreneurship reserves the right to reprint, free of charge, any press articles derived from the coverage of its activities. The World Summit On Innovation & Entrepreneurship in its own publications may reprint this material.
- Submission of your information does not guarantee accreditation.

In order to receive accreditation, it is mandatory for all journalists to submit the following:

By mail, fax, email or via the online website form:

- A completed copy of the accreditation form (see form below)
- A copy of your press card
- A letter from your editor/director/producer on company letterhead that assigns you to cover WSIE and specifies the type of coverage you are planning. Please include anticipated publication/air date of your coverage if known.
